Re: 2012 – 2014 Retransmission Consent

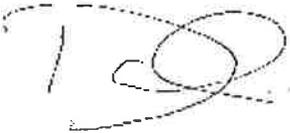

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of ABC Inc. and The Walt Disney Company, we would like to extend to you a retransmission consent offer for the 2012 – 2014 cycle. The retransmission marketplace continues to evolve at a rapid pace. This offer reflects the marketplace evolution and our continued support of small cable operators. However, if you are now or at any time during the term paying another top broadcast network in the market, we want to be fairly compensated and accordingly offer you two options. First, to the extent you are not paying another top broadcast network in your market, we are extending the offer of retransmission consent for no charge, but we will require that, if that changes, you will pay us the highest rate you pay another top-4 broadcaster in the market. Alternatively, you may elect to pay our standard cash rate card (details enclosed).

The enclosed documents include our retransmission consent election letter along with the two different Digital Retransmission Consent Agreements [or DRCA amendments], each of which would implement one of the two options outlined above. Please read through the enclosed documents. We will be following up with you shortly to walk through the enclosed agreements. We would like you to please sign and return the option you choose by September 30, 2011. In the meantime, feel free to reach out to your affiliate sales representative, Luke Faxon-St. Georges at 860-766-5326 with any questions.

Enjoy the remainder of your summer.

Re: 2012 – 2014 Retransmission Consent

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of ABC Inc. and The Walt Disney Company, we would like to extend to you a retransmission consent offer for the 2012 – 2014 cycle. The retransmission marketplace continues to evolve at a rapid pace. This offer reflects the marketplace evolution and our continued support of small cable operators. However, if you are now or at any time during the term paying another top broadcast network in the market, we want to be fairly compensated and accordingly offer you two options. First, to the extent you are not paying another top broadcast network in your market, we are extending the offer of retransmission consent for no charge, but we will require that, if that changes, you will pay us the highest rate you pay another top-4 broadcaster in the market. Alternatively, you may elect to pay our standard cash rate card (details enclosed).

The enclosed documents include our retransmission consent election letter along with the two different Digital Retransmission Consent Agreements [or DRCA amendments], each of which would implement one of the two options outlined above. Please read through the enclosed documents. We will be following up with you shortly to walk through the enclosed agreements. We would like you to please sign and return the option you choose by September 30, 2011. In the meantime, feel free to reach out to your affiliate sales representative, Jesse Wallace at 818-569-5967 with any questions.

Enjoy the remainder of your summer.

Sincerely,

David C. Preschlack

Re: 2012 – 2014 Retransmission Consent

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of ABC Inc. and The Walt Disney Company, we would like to extend to you a retransmission consent offer for the 2012 – 2014 cycle. The retransmission marketplace continues to evolve at a rapid pace. This offer reflects the marketplace evolution and our continued support of small cable operators. However, if you are now or at any time during the term paying another top broadcast network in the market, we want to be fairly compensated and accordingly offer you two options. First, to the extent you are not paying another top broadcast network in your market, we are extending the offer of retransmission consent for no charge, but we will require that, if that changes, you will pay us the highest rate you pay another top-4 broadcaster in the market. Alternatively, you may elect to pay our standard cash rate card (details enclosed).

The enclosed documents include our retransmission consent election letter along with the two different Digital Retransmission Consent Agreements [or DRCA amendments], each of which would implement one of the two options outlined above. Please read through the enclosed documents. We will be following up with you shortly to walk through the enclosed agreements. We would like you to please sign and return the option you choose by September 30, 2011. In the meantime, feel free to reach out to your affiliate sales representative, Ryan Keenan at 860-766-7980 with any questions.

Enjoy the remainder of your summer.

Sincerely,

David C. Preschlack

Re: 2012 – 2014 Retransmission Consent

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of ABC Inc. and The Walt Disney Company, we would like to extend to you a retransmission consent offer for the 2012 – 2014 cycle. The retransmission marketplace continues to evolve at a rapid pace. This offer reflects the marketplace evolution and our continued support of small cable operators. However, if you are now or at any time during the term paying another top broadcast network in the market, we want to be fairly compensated and accordingly offer you two options. First, to the extent you are not paying another top broadcast network in your market, we are extending the offer of retransmission consent for no charge, but we will require that, if that changes, you will pay us the highest rate you pay another top-4 broadcaster in the market. Alternatively, you may elect to pay our standard cash rate card (details enclosed).

The enclosed documents include our retransmission consent election letter along with the two different Digital Retransmission Consent Agreements [or DRCA amendments], each of which would implement one of the two options outlined above. Please read through the enclosed documents. We will be following up with you shortly to walk through the enclosed agreements. We would like you to please sign and return the option you choose by September 30, 2011. In the meantime, feel free to reach out to your affiliate sales representative, Ryan Keenan at 860-766-7980 with any questions.

Enjoy the remainder of your summer.

Re: 2012 – 2014 Retransmission Consent

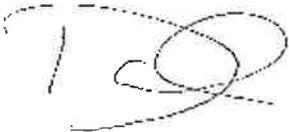

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of ABC Inc. and The Walt Disney Company, we would like to extend to you a retransmission consent offer for the 2012 – 2014 cycle. The retransmission marketplace continues to evolve at a rapid pace. This offer reflects the marketplace evolution and our continued support of small cable operators. However, if you are now or at any time during the term paying another top broadcast network in the market, we want to be fairly compensated and accordingly offer you two options. First, to the extent you are not paying another top broadcast network in your market, we are extending the offer of retransmission consent for no charge, but we will require that, if that changes, you will pay us the highest rate you pay another top-4 broadcaster in the market. Alternatively, you may elect to pay our standard cash rate card (details enclosed).

The enclosed documents include our retransmission consent election letter along with the two different Digital Retransmission Consent Agreements [or DRCA amendments], each of which would implement one of the two options outlined above. Please read through the enclosed documents. We will be following up with you shortly to walk through the enclosed agreements. We would like you to please sign and return the option you choose by September 30, 2011. In the meantime, feel free to reach out to your affiliate sales representative, Ryan Keenan at 860-766-7980 with any questions.

Enjoy the remainder of your summer.

Sincerely,
